

Fax/E-Mail Authorization

Account Name: _____

Trust Account Number(s): _____

Fax Authorization

- The account owner/beneficiary authorizes First Midwest to act on written instructions conveyed by facsimile transmission, notwithstanding the fact that such instructions do not bear an original authorized signature, provided the instructions acted upon: (i) appear to be signed by a person entitled to give binding instruction to First Midwest, and (ii) are consistent with the established authority of such person. This authorization shall continue in effect until revoked or amended in writing delivered to First Midwest. To the extent that First Midwest acts within the scope of this authorization, the account owner/beneficiary expressly relieves First Midwest from and indemnifies First Midwest against any liability that may directly or indirectly arise as a result of First Midwest's action or inaction based on such facsimile transmission.

E-mail Authorization

- The account owner/beneficiary authorizes First Midwest to act on written instructions conveyed by e-mail, notwithstanding the fact that such instructions do not bear an authorized signature, provided the instructions acted upon: (i) appear to have been sent from the computer of a person entitled to give binding instruction to First Midwest, and (ii) are consistent with the established authority of such person. Account owner/beneficiary acknowledges that information sent via e-mail may be less confidential than information sent by other methods. First Midwest shall not be liable for any loss of the confidentiality of information sent by e-mail prior to its reception. This authorization shall continue in effect until revoked or amended in writing delivered to First Midwest. To the extent that First Midwest acts within the scope of this authorization, the account owner/beneficiary expressly relieves First Midwest from and indemnifies First Midwest against any liability that may directly or indirectly arise as a result of First Midwest's actions or inaction based on such e-mail transmission.

This Authorization shall continue in effect until revoked or amended in writing and delivered to First Midwest.

Signature

Date